

Thorup - a feminine colorwork cape

Design: Janne Højfeldt

Short poncho or cape knitted in Pernilla by Filcolana. The poncho can be worn over a t-shirt and a jacket. The shorter length means the arms have full mobility, making it simple to wear while biking, driving or sitting at the keyboard.

Chart 1

Knit all sts. Chart is read from right to left on all rounds. Repeat pattern across entire round.

- Main color 978
- Color 820
- Color 975
- Color 823

There are now: 300 (320) 340 (360) 380 (400) sts.
Continue straight in chart 1, until all 100 rounds have been worked.

Work chart 2 = 16 round.

Purl 1 round.

Knit 19 rounds in the main color. Bind off.

Turtle neck

Pick up and knit 112 (120) 120 (132) 132 (132) sts from the RS with a 40 cm long 3 mm circular needle and the main color along the neck edge. Join in the round and place a marker for the beginning of the round - the side of the work. Work in k2, p2 ribbing for 16 cm. Bind off in pattern.

Finishing

Weave in the ends. Fold the hem along the purled round and sew the bind-off edge to the WS of the poncho. The turtle neck can also, optionally, be folded double and sewn down.

Knit all sts. Chart is read from right to left on all rounds. Repeat pattern across entire round.
