

Sorbet - a 10 color garter stitch blanket

Pattern: Nanna Gudmand-Høyer

"Sorbet" is the result of me playing with colors. It is fun to choose 10 colors that "speak to each other", but still contrast in some way. Here I've chosen soft sorbet colors, that make me dream of delicious Italian ice cream on a hot summer day. You can choose to use the suggested colors, or even better - knit the blanket in your own favorite combination of colors - there are more than 60 colors of Peruvian Highland Wool to choose from.

Directions for Knitting

The blanket is worked back and forth in garter stitch.

Blanket

Cast on 104 sts using color A.

Work 14 garter ridges in color A. Change to color B.

Work 15 garter ridges. Change to color C. Work 15 garter ridges. Continue as established, changing color every 15 garter ridges. Only work 14 ridges for the last color (color J), before binding off.

Weave in the ends (weave in ends by sewing back along the row, following the sts in the same color).
